About

Tereza Heinrichová is a Junior Associate at ZEILER and focuses on dispute resolution, particularly commercial and investment arbitration.

Tereza is a graduate of Masaryk University in Brno with previous professional experience working as a paralegal in local law firms, where she focused primarily on commercial and EU law, and dispute resolution.

During her studies, she gained experience with international arbitration through her participation as an oralist in the 2024 and 2025 editions of the Foreign Direct Investment Moot, as well as the 32nd Vis Moot. Since her participation, she has been supporting both teams of Masaryk University as a coach. In addition to her mooting experience, she also completed two exchange progammes – at Maastricht University (Netherlands) and at the University of Hasselt (Belgium).

Tereza has worked and gained experience under various rules and jurisdictions, including the ICC, UNCITRAL and the Swiss Rules.

Tereza works in English (fluent), Czech (native) and Slovak (fluent).
