

ZEILER

Dagmar Smetanová, Mgr.
Junior Associate

M +420 735 112 615
E dagmar.smetanova@zeiler.eu

About

Dagmar Smetanová is a Junior Associate at ZEILER with focus on dispute resolution, particularly commercial and investment arbitration.

Dagmar is a graduate of Charles University in Prague and has several years of working experience as a paralegal in international and global law firms, where she focused on commercial and competition law, as well as litigation.

She gained experience in international arbitration during her internship at the International Arbitration and Foreign Investment Protection Unit of the Czech Ministry of Finance, which she further developed through her participation in moot court competitions focused on international arbitration. As a quarter-finalist in the 31st Vis Moot, she was recognized among the best speakers of the competition. She now contributes as a coach to the Charles University Vis Moot team.

Dagmar works in Czech (native), English (fluent) and German (professional proficiency).

Qualifications

Professional Experience

- Junior Associate, Zeiler Rechtsanwälte GmbH, Vienna/Austria (since 2025)
- Paralegal, Clifford Chance, Prague/Czech Republic (2024 - 2025)
- Paralegal, Taylor Wessing, Prague/Czech Republic (2023 - 2024)
- Internship, Ministry of Finance - International Arbitration Unit, Prague/Czech Republic (2023)
- Internship, Office for Government Representation in Property Affairs, Prague/Czech Republic (2022)

Education

- Master of Law (Mgr.), Charles University, Prague/Czech Republic (semester abroad at the Sapienza Università di Roma) (2025)
- Bachelor of Arts (Bc.), Chinese Studies, Charles University, Prague/Czech Republic (semester abroad at the Zhejiang University) (2022)